

Small Group Study Guide for March 1, 2020

Our Savior Lutheran Church and School

	: Brother, I forgive you: Peter asked Jesus about forgiveness and received an answer from Him the see but hard to do. Jesus ultimately gives us perfect forgiveness by his death on the cross.
	g Started: What have you given up or added in Lent?
1.	what have you given up or added in tent:
In the \	Word: Read Matthew 18:21-22
2.	What is Peter asking Jesus?
3.	According to Jesus how many times should we forgive those who have sinned against us?
Read N	Natthew 18:23-27
4.	Jesus begins by speaking to them a parable. What kind of debt did the servant owe the master?
5.	What is the servant's response to what the master says in verse 25?

Read Matthew 18:28-35

6. The forgiven servant now leaves the master's presence and finds another servant. What kind of interaction do they have with one another?

7.	How much did the second servant owe the first?
8.	When the master hears about this, what is his response to the first servant?
9.	What does Jesus say to summarize this parable?
	it all Together Where do you experience forgiveness in a Church service?
11.	When we pray "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us what are we asking of God and what does that mean for our daily lives?
12.	Forgiveness is vitally important to the life of a Christian. How can you live out that forgiveness that God has given you this week?
have so to forgi	Gracious Lord, in this season of Lent give us strength to follow you with lives of repentance. You graciously forgiven all of our debts through the work that Christ has done on the cross. Empower us we those around us as you have forgiven us. Bless us that we may be slow to condemn, and quick to This we all ask and we pray as you have taught us

Next Week – A Sad, Rich Young Man: Jesus challenges us to confront our idols and renounce them, so we can receive the gift of grace found in our only Savior and Lord.