6-19-22

Monday Night Worship - New

Our Monday night services begin June 20, and continue through the Monday before Labor Day Weekend, August 29. Worship is at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary, and is in-person only (no Live Stream). Holy Communion will be offered each Monday night, except for Monday, June, 27, when our pastors are at the District Convention. Dave Wright will lead worship without communion that evening. We pray our Monday night services are a blessing to those busy on weekends or preferring a smaller gathering to worship and receive the Sacrament.

Freedom Appreciation Sunday - New

Sunday, July 3, we will have our Freedom Appreciation Services at 8:30 and 10:30, led by the Light Metal Brass at each service. We will recognize any currently serving or veteran military personnel, police, firefighter, and EMT's during the service. They are invited to attend in uniform. Invite family, friends, and neighbors!

Upcoming Sermon Series - New

Colossians: The Supremacy and Sufficiency of Jesus

Join us in July as we take a deep dive into Paul's letter to the Colossians. In one of his "Prison Epistles," Paul explains the relationship between Jesus and the created order more than any of his other epistles, rebukes the heresies that were present in Colossae, and reminds us that we are saved by Christ alone. We invite you to bring your Bible for this sermon series for four weeks starting July 10.
